PASTOR'S DESK

From the Desk of Father Dan

Recently I received the following letter of thanks for our donations of $1,901.00 from our Ash Wednesday collection for J.O.I.N.

"Dear Fr. Ochs and the St. Timothy Parish,

Thank you for this generous gift to J.O.I.N. from your Ash Wednesday collection. We receive more requests from our neighbors each day – brothers and sisters who need assistance to overcome daily obstacles that hinder their goal of self-sufficiency. Your compassion is a blessing to those we serve as well as to those of us honored to serve.

Grace and Peace! ~Lisa Keita "

Reminder: The next Baptismal Class for parents or expectant parents is this Tuesday, April 9th, at 6:00 p.m. in the church. Please call the office on Monday to let us know that you're coming if you haven't already registered. Thanks.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Dan

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT

See My Hands

"Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side and do not be unbelieving, but believe." ~John 20:19-31

With so much attention given to doubting Thomas, we may miss opening our hearts to the initiative Our Lord takes in responding to Thomas' ultimatum. This is Divine Mercy in action. It is also in keeping with the special concern Jesus shows for the one who is lost – in all the ways we can find ourselves "away from home."

A "week later," as the passage reads (v. 26), the Risen Lord appears to the disciples again – this time for Thomas' sake. The showing of His wounds and the invitation to touch them is a moment of deepest poignancy. It is also a personal revelation to Thomas and to the other disciples that the Cross is the unmistakable path to salvation. That the whole of John's Gospel finds its climax in Thomas' profession of faith helps us to see how Divine Mercy takes flesh, as it were, in each one who believes.

THANK YOU, DESANTIS FLORISTS!

Our liturgies for Palm Sunday and Holy Week were beautified spectacularly by the donation of palms, lilies, and plants from DeSantis. They provide St. Timothy with all floral arrangements throughout the year. We are very grateful for the enhancement of all our liturgies provided by their commitment and generosity.

We meet on Tuesday mornings after 9:00 a.m. Mass in the Teachers' Lounge. You may come for one, several or all sessions. All are welcome!

Helping a Family
Struggling with Homelessness

*"Give and it will be given to you."
~Luke 6:38.*

The single greatest systemic cause of homelessness in the US is a lack of affordable housing. A report by the National Low Income Housing Coalition found that Ohio fails to have an adequate supply of affordable rental housing. This has driven thousands of families to end up homeless. In Ohio, there are over 10,000 homeless people on a given night of which 3,000 are families.

Samantha and her four children are an example of a Columbus family struggling with homelessness. Last year, they were required to stay at the homeless shelter for a period of time after her husband left the family. Last summer, Samantha found a job working as a troubleshooter for a computer company and the family finally moved into an apartment that fit their needs. However, recently unexpected medical expenses caused the family to fall behind in their rent and an eviction was filed. Stopping this eviction was critical to keep this family from returning to homelessness. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul organizations (SVDP) provided the rent assistance to stop eviction proceedings and supplied the family with food and other resources for additional help. Samantha has since received a promotion at work and the family should be able to meet their expenses going forward.

Since August of 2020, our St. Timothy Conference has partnered with other SVDP organizations and has assisted 375 families with their past due rent and utilities through our home visit program. Most of these families were facing eviction after struggling to make their monthly rent and utility bills.

We are very grateful to have your support and commitment. Together we can fulfill our mission of providing emergency assistance to individuals and families in need of housing, food and clothing.
